

Native Images Strengthening the Circle: Women's Talking Circles

Strengthening the Circle is an intervention program for Native Americans and other multi-ethnic women who share many of the same challenges in their lives. This program welcomes women 18 years and older who struggle with substance abuse, trauma, recovery, and violence.

The Strengthening the Circle is a 10-week program that takes a multi-cultural approach to addressing women's issues by implementing the "Young Women are Sacred Curriculum, an empowering model for improving coping skills, self esteem, self efficacy, and cultural pride, while reducing high-risk behaviors.
