TEEN What?

Native Images is excited to present its upcoming program for young leaders! TEEN Perceptions, this program provides an excellent opportunity for young teens related to substance use/abuse prevention, HIV/AIDS prevention strategies while learning life skills and leadership development.

Who's getting involved?

TEEN PERCEPTIONS includes Native American and other minority youth between the ages of 13 and 19 years old who have personal experience with substance use/abuse, relationships, trauma, violence, and engaging in risky behaviors that threaten their lives every day.

So, what do you do?

TEEN PERCEPTIONS is an 8-week program that communicates with young teens through the Native American traditional talking circles. Through the "Youth are Sacred" curriculum. This curriculum will teach teens to build social, academic, leadership and life skills while empowering them to make better decisions and contribute to their communities through outreach, projects, and community events!
